

NO!

MORE TROOPS

President Bush will reveal his "new strategy" for Iraq on or around Wednesday, January 10th. Defying the mandate of Americans who voted to end the madness and to begin bringing our troops home, the President is expected to call for an escalation of U.S. combat troops in Iraq.

Please join us as we deliver an immediate and direct response to the president's call for escalation: NO!
